Page 3 1 PROCEEDINGS (The following proceedings were held in open court before the Honorable Patti B. Saris, United States District Judge, United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, at the John J. Moakley United States Courthouse, 1 Courthouse Way, Boston, Massachusetts, on April 12, 2006. The defendants, David Jordan and Anthony Bucci, are present with counsel. The Assistant United States Attorneys 8 9 are present.) 10 THE CLERK: Please be seated. 11 THE COURT: Good morning. 12 ALL: Good morning. 13 THE COURT: Do you want the good news or the bad 14 news? 15 The good news is that the juror is not sick anymore and has come in. And the alternate is downstairs. 16 17 good news. 18 The bad news is that someone from the press approached one of the jurors as he walked in the building. 19 20 reported it to the security guard, and at least the way it was reported to me, a member of the press asked him something about 21 22 his opinion on the case. I'm getting it triple-hand telephone. I thought we 23 should talk to the juror. And I also instructed our jury clerk 24 25 to go down there with a security guard to make sure he wasn't

Page 4 approaching other people. But I can't be sure, right? 1 So what I need to do is talk to the juror, see if there was any taint at all, and then I'd like to work through 3 with all of you what I should do, if anything, about the rest of the members of the jury. I have no knowledge that any of the other ones were approached. On the other hand, what if 6 someone was? I just don't want to let it drop, you know what I 8 mean? I think I would just ask one by one did anybody talk to you, and just leave it that, vaguely. Does that seem 10 like an acceptable approach? 11 MR. NATOLA: The only question, your Honor, I would 12 13 prefer that it be done in a confidential setting, in other words, not in open court. On the record, however. I think 14 that you're more likely to get a candid response from the juror 15 if it's done with the lawyers, you know, in a semi-confidential 16 17 way. THE COURT: I think I can do it up here at sidebar 18 19 confidentially rather than back in --20 MR. NATOLA: Sure. THE COURT: Let me just start with if you could 21 all -- where does Judge Lindsay do sidebar in here? 22 Okay. If we started right now with Mr. -- I also 23 24 have the alternate downstairs -- I'm not letting him go until we find out what the deal is with Mr. -- with the one juror.

25

- 1 So --
- MR. NATOLA: Do we know who it was from the press
- who made the inquiry?
- 4 MR. McNEIL: I just wanted to say one thing, your
- 5 Honor. I'd like you to ask in the conference with this juror
- to have a description of the person who approached him. There
- 7 have been some shenanigans in this case having to do with
- 8 subpoenas. The government for the attorneys in this case were
- 9 subpoenaed, as well as all the lawyers for some of the
- witnesses. It would be helpful to know if this was connected
- with those earlier shenanigans or if this is completely
- 12 independent.
- On the inquiry -- this may not have been a person
- from the press at all, it may have been somebody else posing
- 15 that way.
- 16 THE COURT: I can't answer that. I can't answer
- 17 that.
- Let me just say, if there is anyone from the press
- 19 here -- I don't know if there is or there isn't -- no one
- should be approaching jurors. That's a direct order. I don't
- know for a fact, for the reasons the government said, it was
- someone from the press, but it's a direct order. No one should
- be approaching jurors in this case. And, also, no juror names
- 24 should be disclosed.
- MR. McNEIL: With respect to the other jurors, I think you can just do the usual question, have you spoken to anyone about this case? I think that would suffice.

                 THE COURT: I'm going to do it one by one.
                 MR. NATOLA: I think that's the better way to it.
                 THE COURT: I just do a generic one, almost more to remind them, and I think it works. But let's just get this 6
     juror out here.
                 MR. DRECHSLER: Judge, before -- I would ask with regard to the other 11 jurors, first of all, that if -- I would 9
     ask the Court to simply ask them whether or not anyone 10 attempted to speak with them or communicate with them without 11 12
     mentioning the press.
                 THE COURT: I totally agree.
13
                                 The second thing is, with regard to 14
                 MR. DRECHSLER:
     this juror, I just -- obviously the inquiry is different 15 because the communication was reported. I assume you're going 16
     to ask whether or not the communication was in any way 17 discussed with any of the other jurors.
18
                 THE COURT: You're going to be up there with me.
19
     If I forget, you'll remind me.
20
                 I was also going to -- there's some members of the 21
22
    press -- have the guy look out there and see if he sees the 23 person.
24
                 (Discussion off the record.)
25
                 (Juror entered the courtroom.
```

Page 7
                 THE COURT: Mr. [Redacted], come on up.
 1
                 I want to seal all the records of these sidebars.
                 (Sidebar discussion held on the record and has been 4
     sealed.)
 5
                 (End of discussion at sidebar.)
                 THE COURT: Okay. You may be seated. Thank you.
                 Good morning. I'm glad to see you're all healthy.
     You can resume deliberations. One again, we'll come by about 4:30 or so if you're not done to let -- that's not true, probably around 4:00, because I need to leave a little bit 10 earlier today, probably around 4:00. So if you want to 11 leave -- I need to leave by about 4:00. So if you want to stay 12 and deliberate, I would let you do that, but probably I'll 13 dismiss you around 4:00, and you'll come back the next day if 14
15
     you're not done.
                 We'll provide you lunch and we'll hear from you 16
17 when you want us to.
                 THE CLERK: All rise for the jury.
18
19
                 (Jury left the courtroom at 9:32 a.m.)
                 THE COURT: I am now just going to state publicly 20 for the record, in case any members of the press got the name, 21 please not publish the name of that juror. His name I think I 22
23
     spoke out publicly in the public record.
                 One other thing is I want to -- I'm bringing up the 24 alternate to say thank you. Do you all want to be here for 25

Page 8 1 that? MR. DRECHSLER: THE COURT: I'm just going to say it was probably inconvenient for him to sort of put his morning aside. 4 5 bring him up and say thanks. 6 I did want to ask one question again at sidebar 7 here. (At side bar on the record.) THE COURT: Katie may know the answer to this, but I notice something that was very interesting when I was talking 10 11 to those jurors is they all only listed their first names until 12 Maybe a couple of quys said their last names. I want to make sure, were all the jury questionnaires --13 14 COURT REPORTER: Not the lists. THE COURT: We should probably get those back. 16 unless -- so I want all the juror lists back. 17 MR. DRECHSLER: I don't have mine with me. 18 THE COURT: I just notice that it was --19 MR. NATOLA: I don't have mine either, your Honor, 20 but I can tell you, and this is for the record, and I think 21 it's important, that that has not left my possession. I have 22 not disclosed any information from the juror lists to anybody, 23 including, but not limited to, my client. So --24 MR. DRECHSLER: I'm in the same position. 25 MS. LUISE: Same here, your Honor.

Page 9 I don't have it physically with me. 1 MR. DRECHSLER: THE COURT: Why don't you physically return that to I can quarantee the jury that. That is a question the court. they will ask. I can ask that. I'm going to order a CSO when 5 they leave today to walk them out of the building. I don't know who that person was. It's weird. 6 MR. NATOLA: Very weird. THE COURT: I don't think it's the press. MR. McNEIL: I don't know what to suggest. I do know the local Malden press was covering this thing, and it may 10 11 have just been an inexperienced reporter. 12 That gentleman is here in the back, MR. MERRITT: 13 he's been here throughout the trial. 14 THE COURT: And he didn't get identified. 15 MR. DRECHSLER: For the record, he was sitting back 16 there not only during the entire trial, but he was here I 17 think -- his name is in the back. THE COURT: And the juror looked around for 30 18 19 seconds. 20 MR. DRECHSLER: Yes, he did. I'm not here to cast any blame on 21 THE COURT: 22 anyone, but that's unusual. 23 MR. DRECHSLER: Yes, it is. 24 THE COURT: And so I think we collect all those lists, and I can guarantee -- I'll guarantee the jury we've 25

Page 10 done that. It didn't really hit home to me until they just 1 gave me their first names. MR. DRECHSLER: Your Honor, you don't do that until 4 after the deliberations are over. 5 THE COURT: No, I thought I was going to do it 6 right now. MR. NATOLA: Please. I just want the record --MR. McNEIL: The record should reflect that the Court was jesting. 1.0 THE COURT: The court was jesting. Bring up the alternate. I'm not going to do it on 11 12 the record. 13 (Recess taken from 9:36 to 11:25 a.m.) 14 THE COURT: Good morning. I understand that there 15 is a verdict, and we're lining the jury up. I'm going to 16 have -- I want to make sure that if anyone thinks there's a question that's not answered that should be, or other way 17 around, as you know, I'm not as close to this case as I usually 18 19 am. Just say I need to see you at sidebar before we dismiss 20 the jury. 21 THE CLERK: All rise for the jury. 22 (Jury entered the courtroom.) THE CLERK: Members of the jury, please remain 23 24 Defendant Bucci, Defendant Jordan, you may remain standing.

standing. Everyone else may be seated.

25

Page 11 1 THE COURT: You may inquire. THE CLERK: Mr. Foreman, has the jury reached a unanimous verdict? 3 JURY FOREPERSON: Yes. THE CLERK: Would you please return your verdict to the Court? 6 THE COURT: All right. THE CLERK: Mr. Foreman, question 1. As to count one charging conspiracy to distribute and possession with 10 intent to distribute cocaine, is the defendant, David Jordan, 11 quilty or not quilty? 12 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty. 13 THE COURT: Is the defendant, Anthony Bucci, guilty 14 or not quilty? 15 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty. THE COURT: As to question 1 A, do you find the 16 conspiracy involved 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance 17 18 containing a detectable amount of cocaine? 19 JURY FOREPERSON: Yes. 20 THE COURT: Question 2. As to count two charging possession with intent to distribute cocaine, aiding and 21 22 abetting, is the defendant, David Jordan, guilty or not guilty? 2.3 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty. 24 THE COURT: Is the defendant, Anthony Bucci, guilty 25 or not guilty?

                 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty.
                 THE COURT: Question 2 A. Do you find as to David Jordan the amount possessed with intent to be distributed was 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine?
                 JURY FOREPERSON: Yes.
                             Question 2 B. Do you find as to
                 THE COURT:
     Anthony Bucci that the amount possessed with intent to be distributed was 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance
 9 10 containing a detectable amount of cocaine?
11
                 JURY FOREPERSON: Yes.
12
                 THE COURT: Question 3. As to count three charging 13 using or carrying a firearm during and in relation to a drug trafficking crime, possession of a firearm in furtherance of a 14
15 drug trafficking crime, do you find the defendant, David 16
     Jordan, guilty or not guilty?
17
                 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty.
                 THE COURT: Do you find the defendant, Anthony 18
19
     Bucci, guilty or not guilty?
20
                                   Guilty.
                 JURY FOREPERSON:
                 THE COURT: Question 4. As to count four charging 21 attempted witness tampering, do you find the defendant, David 22
23
     Jordan, quilty or not guilty?
24
                 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty.
25
                             Ouestion five. As to count five
                 THE COURT:
```

Page 13
     charging possession with intent to distribute cocaine, do you 1
     find the defendant, Anthony Bucci, quilty or not guilty?
                 JURY FOREPERSON:
                                   Guilty.
                 THE CLERK: Question 5 A. As to the charge of simple possession of cocaine, you have no answer?
 5
                 JURY FOREPERSON:
                                   Guilty.
                 THE CLERK: 5 A?
                 THE JURY: No answer.
                 JURY FOREPERSON: No answer, that's correct.
                 THE CLERK: As to question 6. As to count six 10
     charging a false statement, as to defendant David Jordan, 11
12
     quilty or not quilty?
13
                 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty.
14
                 THE CLERK: Ouestion 7. As to count seven charging a false statement, is the defendant, David Jordan, guilty or 15
16
     not quilty?
17
                 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty.
                 THE CLERK: Number eight. As to count eight 18 19
     charging a false statement, is the defendant, David Jordan, 20
     guilty or not guilty?
21
                 JURY FOREPERSON: Guilty.
22
                 THE CLERK: So say you in your verdict,
23
     Mr. Foreman, so say you, all members of the jury?
24
                 THE JURY: Yes.
25
                 THE CLERK: Thank you.

- THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.
- I want to thank you for your service on this jury,
- and I know that Judge Lindsay would want me to say that, too.
- 4 I know it's been a long trial and you've been here for a while
- and I do want to add a few things. The first is, that you can
- 6 now talk about this case with whomever you want to talk about
- it with. You can talk about it with the press, but you don't
- have to. You can talk about it with members of your family or
- 9 your friends.
- I would say two things: Nobody from this case
- should be in touch with you about this case. So you should not
- talk to anybody involved with this case about the case unless
- you do so under the orders of Judge Lindsay.
- Second thing is, going into these deliberations,
- many people say confidential things, it's part of the
- deliberative process, and I would ask you to respect the
- confidentiality of the communications of your brother and
- 18 sister jurors.
- I make it a practice when I've been presiding over
- a case to come back and say thank you. I will do that in a few - minutes on behalf of Judge Lindsay. For those of you who have
- had enough of federal court, I certainly won't be insulted if
- you decide to leave.
- 24 At this point what I'm going to do is I'm going to
- recess, and then I am going to set a sentencing date.

                 So why don't we stand in recess at this point.
                 THE CLERK: All rise for the jury.
                  (Jury left the courtroom.)
                 THE CLERK: Please be seated.
                 THE COURT: I've got sentencing dates for Mr. Bucci -- I have them at two separate times that I've received from Judge Lindsay's session. September 18 at 2:00 8 for Mr. Bucci, September 19th at 2:30 for Mr. Jordan.
                 MR. NATOLA: September 18th at 2:00, your Honor?
10
                 THE COURT: Yes, and September 19th at 2:30.
                 MR. DRECHSLER:
                                  2:30.
                 Two other things. I am now revoking bail, so I'm 12
13 placing both Mr. Bucci and Mr. Jordan in custody. And the 14 second thing is that I know this has been a very emotional 15 trial for a lot of the members of the family, but I also want to remind you all to have no contact whatsoever with any of the 16
17
     jurors in this case or any other witnesses or participants.
18
                 So at this point what we're going to do is, unless 19
     there's anything else, we're going to stand in recess.
20
                 MR. McNEIL: Just one matter, your Honor, I'd like 21 to take up at sidebar?
22
                 THE COURT: Do we need -- all right.
23
                 (At sidebar on the record.)
24
                 Your Honor, the government would like to interview
25
     Mr. [Redacted] today, not about the verdict, not about their
```

- deliberations, but about the approach that this person made to
- him. I think it's important. His memory is freshest today as
- 3 it has been in the past.
- THE COURT: Does anyone have an objection to that?
- 5 MR. DRECHSLER: Not as long as they don't get into
- 6 any deliberations or anything like that. Because if they do,
- 7 then I want to receive a copy of whatever it is.
- In any case, I quess I'd like to a copy of whatever
- 9 report.
- THE COURT: Of any notes.
- Okay. I will ask him. It's up to him to decide
- whether he wants to or not.
- MR. McNEIL: Okay.
- 14 THE COURT: I will do that.
- MR. NATOLA: I join in Mr. Drechsler's request,
- your Honor.
- THE COURT: And I want those jury lists back for
- everyone's protection. I want them back.
- MR. DRECHSLER: Should I mail it to the Court?
- THE COURT: I forget where your office is.
- Mailing is fine or --
- MR. DRECHSLER: It's in my office.
- THE COURT: I would have somebody messenger it
- over. I don't know what happened this morning.
- THE CLERK: You may want to have somebody bring it

	Page 17
1	to Lisa Hourihan.
2	THE COURT: Give them to Mr. Alba.
3	MS. LUISE: Your Honor, I've provided mine already.
4	THE COURT: And I want them from the government,
5	too.
6	MR. McNEIL: Okay.
7	THE COURT: Let's stand in recess.
